The Johannes Kepler University herewith signs the recommendation submitted by the European Commission of March 11, 2005 on the European Charter for Research and a Code of Conduct for the employment of researchers.

November 18, 2010

The Johannes Kepler University Linz, represented by Rector Prof. DI Dr. Richard Hagelauer, pledges his support to the European Commission's initiative in regards to the Commission's recommendation on the European Charter for Researchers and a Code of Conduct for the employment of researchers.

At a meeting on November 18, 2010, the JKU Rectorate approved entry to the European Charter for Researchers.

The implementation of the charter is an integral part of the university's strategic plan and the realization of research at the JKU Linz.

In order to effectively comply with the charter's key points, the JKU's strategic plan includes planned programs and an intent focus on the following areas: Science and research, education in quality attributes, internationalization, socio-political responsibility and agendas for the advancement of women as well as policies in support of equal opportunity.

Richard Hagelauer, o. Univ.Prof. DI Dr.
